

INVITATION TO JOURNALISTS TO ATTEND IOF WORLD CONGRESS ON OSTEOPOROSIS 2008

Just a reminder that IOF offers free registration to journalists who attend the IOF WCO 2008 in Bangkok, Thailand.

However all journalists, including those brought in for satellite symposia, must register in advance, otherwise they cannot gain entry into the conference hall, nor will they receive the benefits listed below. Please register before 31 October 2008.

The registration forms can be found at

<http://www.iofbonehealth.org/wco/2008/media-centre.html>

Registered journalists will receive:

- free registration to the IOF World Congress on Osteoporosis
- all documentation
- access to daily press briefings run by IOF, which will take place in the press room during the lunch break
- access to press briefings organized by sponsors
- first access to official press releases

In addition, registered journalists will have free access to:

- media centre, with internet connections, printers, laptop connections
- interview room (by reservation) for conducting private interviews
