

A mother's broken hip, a daughter's broken wrist: it's a family affair

THAT'S OSTEOPOROSIS

Margarida, aged 80, and her daughter Adriana each required months of rehabilitation after their fractures. Although they have recovered well, Margarida now uses a walker to get around and needs help with some daily chores.

Our vision is a world without fragility fracture in which healthy mobility is a reality for all

WorldOsteoporosisDay
October20

www.worldosteoporosisday.org